

Comics and the Francophone world

Teaching Guide

AGE GROUP: 10 to 14 years old.

INTRODUCTION

It is essential to promote knowledge of both tangible and intangible European heritage, as well as the richness and cultural diversity of the different countries that make up the European Union.

Through this workshop we want to bring together a part of the artistic heritage focused specifically on the relationship between great characters from the Francophone world and the world of comics. Showing students the particular graphic and narrative richness of the comic and the baggage that it has in the history of several generations since its creation, and that fortunately today continues to imprint our society in a timeless way, is one of the objectives pursued with this activity.

OBJECTIVES

- Get to know popular French-speaking comic book characters and their creators.
- Recognize the value of the comic as a means of expression.
- Acquire knowledge about the Francophone world linked to comics.
- Recognize the comic within the literary world and its historical journey.
- Raise awareness about the importance of respect for cultural diversity.

PROFICIENCIES

This work unit is designed with integrated activities that allow students to advance in the development of the following skills:

- Linguistic communication.
- Digital.
